I. INTRODUCTION

Moral Compassion is an integral part of the development of character education values. Fassin (2005: 363) describes an individual even though he develops the capacity and capability to develop himself in the midst of global currents. To develop character education values, even though an individual develops himself and follows development trends that demand changing times and independence. To develop character education values, a comprehensive study is needed.

Papazoglou (2017: 4) explain that moral compassion is important because of the development of character education values, especially as reflected in the Chinese culture, Beat Generation plays a major role in developing global educational values. Beat Generation is a generation that grew up in a digital environment, learning various skills informally. In this case, the development of character education values is a key factor of diversity.

The first preliminary research was conducted by Saturn (2017). Saturn (2017: 122) explains that children's stories in the Chinese beat generation are an inseparable part of improving culture. To develop cultural values, the process of developing character education values becomes dominant in the midst of global currents.

The second preliminary research was conducted by Xu (2017). Xu (2017: 5) explains that children's stories in the Chinese beat generation are needed to develop character education values. In developing character education values, value development is an inseparable part of character education that teaches values as a whole. For this reason, it is necessary to integrate the values of character education with the development of cultural values.

The third preliminary research was conducted by Kamason. Kalmason (2020: 3) explains that children's stories in the Chinese beat generation are an inseparable part of the development of cultural values. To develop these values, a creative analysis is carried out which develops along with the development of information and communication technology.

The Chinese beat generation is an inseparable part of the mainstream, namely the digital native generation of children. Chinese beat generation as part of the sub-culture is part of the development of character education values. In this case, the development of character education values becomes one of the developments of character education values. Based on the above description, this research takes the title Moral Compassion Reflected in Chinese Beat Generation Stories.

II. Method

This study uses an adaptation of research design on critical discourse analysis by Fairclough (2001), explicitly in some steps, those are: (1) Astral Pet Store, (2) Worlds' Apocalypse Online, (3) The Tempesous Consort Willfully Pampered By The Beastly Highness (4) Invincible Copy System, (5) My Vampire System, (6) Ultimate Gene Valkyrie, (7) Scholar Advanced Technological System, (8) Warrior's Promise, (9) I Found an Apocalyptic World, (10) Heaven Devouring Dragon Emperor, (11) Legend of Swordsman and (12) Return of The War of God. Those stories are written during 2005-2021 periods.

III. Results and Discussion

3.1. Results

The ability to develop character education values is closely related to the development of cultural values. Wang & Ngai (2020: 119) explain that cultural values are an inseparable part of the values of character education which provide opportunities for students to develop their capacities and capabilities. To develop these values, an individual develops the values of character education.

3.1.1 Moral Value of Cooperation

To develop insight into the values of character education, even if an individual develops the capacity for ideas related to character education.

Kalmanson (2020: 3) states that it is useful to increase patterns of insight and independence that can be used to develop a consistent and sustainable identity as a whole. In this case educational values and character education are the main focus in learning.

"If we tried to change it again right now, the history of 10 trillion years would also be changed, we will be affected by the surging current of messed up Causality and killed off" (Worlds' Apocalypse Online)

The ability to find an understanding of diversity is key to changing the world. In this case the ability to transform educational values.

"Whether it is the young generation supreme of the pinnacle force, or the strong who broke through the qualifiers, they were all injured in the previous battle. None of them were intact. Several super horrible beasts were hunted at the best time. For a time, it was radiant. The energy exploded, shaking the stone forest, blood splashing, the scene was chaotic and screaming." (Ultimate Gene Valkyrie)

The ability to work hard is a key factor for strengthening spiritual values and character education. To develop these spiritual values, it is necessary to design and design the values of character education that are to enhance national identity.

"The timing of a few super terrifying beasts is not only when everyone is almost rested in the fight, but also very familiar with the stone forest. In this special power confinement, such as a place where the quagmire, physical power becomes the base of combat effectiveness, there is no one. The human body is stronger than the super terrifying beast." (Ultimate Gene Valkyrie)

Increased identity and skills to maintain existence are key factors in increasing individual diversity. To develop these values, self-improvement and quality that are identical to the environment are needed.

3.1.2. Mutual Respect for Moral Values

In this case, strengthening the values of character education is closely related to the development of values towards culture. Even though an individual has the ability and skills to value character education, which promotes a sense of tolerance. Wu (2020: 12) values character education to be reflected along with the pace of globalization which demands the development and transformation of culture and ethics.

"Then, he walked towards her and led her to the courtyard for a stroll, so that she could digest her food better and they both could talk." (The Tempestuous Consort Willfully Pampered by The Beastly Highness)

A person's ability to appreciate the work of others is the key to getting the attention it deserves. In this case, skills to develop character are the key to gaining public attention.

"The pit that appeared on the barrier before gave way under the impact and began expanding in size but at the same time, it was recovering at an astonishing speed." (Legend of Swordsman)

Having a healthy mind is the key to survival and success. In this case, the skills to transform yourself are the key to life.

"Jian Wushuang kept a cold and distant look. The Blood Mountain Sword brandished at will in his hand. Sword-light filled the space as a sea of swords formed in an instant and inundated Strange Old Feng." (Legend of Swordsman)

Having constructive thinking is the key to developing spiritual values and character education. For this reason, creative efforts are needed to be successful.

"Jian Wushuang was extremely powerful. Although he had not used the Seven Stars Secret Technique, his divine powers were much stronger than before from absorbing 3,500 Primordial Stones. He also had the one thousand feet Golden God Shadow behind him." (Legend of Swordsman)

Having the habit of behaving is a key factor of success and character education. For this reason, it is necessary to increase the values and insight into diversity.

3.1.3. Moral Values Respect Life

The development of character education values is closely related to the development of spiritual values, which means the development of national identity and insight. Wu (2020: 12) states to develop these values, even though a human develops ideas and skills in critical discourse with regard to character education values in the form of human insight. Even though this insight is developed for elementary school students.

"Everything had already been predetermined, as soon as the Apotheotic Combat ends, Ye Ru Xi will be brought back to the world of the Spire, and the preparations will be triggered." (Worlds' Apocalypse Online)

Dedication in work is a key factor in developing spiritual values. This key factor is an inseparable part of the values of character education, namely respecting diversity.

"Zhang Lie appeared. In the chaotic scene, there was not much fluctuation. Everyone was overwhelmed. Zhang Lie looked at a few super terrifying beasts, including golden toads, surrounded by golden coins. All attacks were blocked by the coins. , Opening the mouth is a coin, the whole body will become heavy and difficult to move, and it will become very unlucky." (Ultimate Gene Valkyrie)

The ability to argue plays a major role in success. In this case, the skill to express opinions politely is the essence of success.

: Saying so, that figure triumphantly chuckled, then slowly faded into the void of space and disappeared from the secret room." (Worlds' Apocalypse Online)

An individual even though has sufficient understanding of technological developments. This is useful for career and professional development.

"Those people from the Bailan Alliance were extremely hard to deal with. Their goal was to find Lan'er's whereabouts. If he did not attend to them and they learned that Lan'er was the person they were seeking, he would have bigger troubles to tend to." (The Tempesous Consort Willfully Pampered By The Beastly Highness)

The skills to carry out moral actualization are an inseparable part of the values of character education. In that sense, the ability to apply morals in everyday life is the key to success.

"I'm leaving tomorrow morning, so I'm gonna skip shaving. I'll make myself uglier so that you will have fewer love rivals. " (The Tempesous Consort Willfully Pampered By The Beastly Highness)

The ability to thank colleagues is an inseparable part of the values of character education. In this case, the skills to carry out self-transformation in life actualization.

"Fan Tong continued in a quiet voice," I said before that the tunnel here will change drastically every two hours. However, no matter how it changes, I think its endpoint is the same. If he is still alive, we will definitely be able to meet at the front. " (Scholar Advanced Technological System)

The ability of spiritual values is an inseparable part of character education. In this case, skills for character education are the key to life today.

"Even if he really did a miracle and withstood the frenzied attack of these two people, there would still be five galaxy realms behind, there was no real suspense from the beginning of this contest." (Heaven Devouring Dragon Emperor)

Respect for the community and individuals is a key factor in enhancing quality and spiritual values. In this context, skills for self-transformation are the keys to spirituality and diversity.

"Roared to the sky, the soul of the King of Destiny of Yongxiao shone out, shaking the earth, an infinite horrible coercion overflowed, unlimited brilliance and brilliance rushing in ten directions, a huge fist evolving into the void!" (Return of The War of God)

The ability to carry out self-transformation and analysis of activities is an inseparable part of the values of character education. In this case, increasing knowledge is the key to optimism.

"The huge power is like two realms swept apart after breaking open. The terrifying fist strength is rolling across the world with the power of the heavenly king, setting off endless ripples and tides! " (Return of The War of God)

A strong person does not mean someone who is able to defeat his enemies, but rather someone who is able to make peace with himself and forgive.

3.1.4. Moral Values Respect Others

The process of developing character education values is closely related to a comprehensive human insight based on spiritual values that are consistent and dominant in line with the development of global currents. Kokkinos & Kipritsi (2018: 535) explains that The development of spiritual values and character education is closely related to the development of a comprehensive and consistent organizational structure background along with the pace of the times.

"Everyone reacted, not angry but happy. When Su Ping's face-to-face discussion, they wanted Su Ping's mentality to explode and distract him. Now Su Ping takes the initiative to send out his pet, which is better than they thought. "(Astral Pet Store)

Basically, the social system has a consensus to adhere to. This is because even though life is done to maintain the physical and mental endurance of an individual.

“Wang Peng climbed up from the ground. He gritted his teeth and removed the stone pressing on his leg. If this was on Earth, his legs would be broken, but fortunately, the gravity of Mars was only 0.37 times that of Earth.”(Scholar Advanced Technological System)

The ability to think ahead holds the key to an individual's success. In this case, the skills to change and transform are the keys to success.

Aubrey and Lomonov fell behind when they escaped and were forced to rush into another path. It was still unclear whether they were alive or dead, but Wang Peng didn't care. (Scholar Advanced Technological System)

The ability to increase spiritual values and character education about critical thinking is an inseparable part of increasing spiritual values.

“The comments on the livestream were coming in faster than they could be read now that the most anticipated fight was about to happen. For the bets, the odds were made even and it looked like Logan wouldn't really make a loss or a profit depending on which side would win.” My Vampire System

The ability to help others is the key to maintaining the existence of life. In this case, the skills to conduct life analysis and studies are the key to maintaining identity and life existence.

“This time, when Pure entered the arena, both Layla and Rony took a fighting stance, rather than just standing there like trees. It seemed that they too would be participating in the fight. ” (My Vampire System)

Collective skills are an inseparable part of spiritual values and character education. In this case, the skills to find identity become dominant in the midst of global factors.

"While Helen was talking to Lucy trying to taunt her, roots were traveling fast across the ground and it looked to be Ivy's doing, as she had her hands placed on the floor." (My Vampire System)

The ability to carry out transformation and national values is an inseparable part of character education. Value transformation becomes the main focus of the development of character education values.

"Seeing the people standing around, and seeing the obvious leader-like person standing in front of me, I quickly begged for mercy:" Brothers, heroes, take what you need, please let us go. " (I Found an Apocalyptic World)

Increasing the values of respect for oneself is the key to identity and diversity. In this case, improving self-quality plays a major role in the key to character education.

"Yang Zhiyong ignored Su Wenqiang's begging for mercy, and asked the person on the side:" Did everyone in it catch it? " (I Found an Apocalyptic World)

Increasing spiritual values are creative steps to develop basic character education. To develop these values, efforts are needed to develop insights regarding character education.

"Immediately, Su Wenqiang cried next to him again:" My lord, please let us go. In addition to the materials, we came out of here, there is also a warehouse of materials outside. As long as you let us go, I will definitely leave that warehouse. The materials will tell you too. " (I Found an Apocalyptic World)

Obedying the rules of the game is an integral part of spiritual values and character education. In this case, the ability to develop factual values is reflected in the increase in moral capacity and character values.

"This son's understanding and control of space spiritual power has reached an astonishing level. On this point alone, even if we are of the same level as the Galaxy realm, it may not be stronger than him, unless he specializes in space spiritual power. It is possible for the order to be above him! " (Heaven Devouring Dragon Emperor)

Respect for others is a key factor in enhancing identity and diversity. In this case, the skill to respect each other is the key to survival.

3.1.5. Moral Value Caring for Others

The 21st century learning paradigm is a learning paradigm that teaches work discipline and a passion for consistent work. Thornberg, Wänström, Pozzoli & Hong(2019: 586) 21st century learning, the abilities and skills of a worker are factors that provide opportunities to work consistently and independently. To hold these key factors, even though an individual learns to develop character, it is followed by increasing the quality and discipline of an individual.

"Beside, the Purgatory Candle Dragon Beast also roared, and the Dragon Roar echoed each other like the White scale Thunder Dragon Beast, spreading over this sea area, and then they released their regular power to directly kill the two flying starry sky realms!"(Astral Pet Stone)

Basically, an individual despite having the passion to have friends. This is because humans are social creatures.

"The White Lin Hankong Thunder Dragon Beast roared, and its figure flashed suddenly, dodged from under the stick in an extremely strange posture, and then chased the two escaped starry sky realm." (Astral Pet Store)

Humans though have the ability to show sympathy for the suffering of others. One must show sympathy for others and stay away from selfishness. "Liu Ning did a little too much in dealing with the Bai family. Because Xiong Mao had not discussed this matter with others, so others did not know the specific situation, so when Liu Ning started to do these things, he would There is a lot of room for maneuver. As for what these people think in their hearts, Liu Ning doesn't care at all. " (Invincible Copy System)

The ability to learn is the key to survival in the midst of challenges. In this sense, skills to be able are the key to maintaining a comprehensive and consistent policy line.

"No matter how you say these things, it is impossible to have a good result, because Liu Ning is very confused at the moment. On the one hand, he thinks that he will draw a line with these consortiums. After all, the consortium is drinking the blood of the people. In addition to their medicinal material business, they also have many factories. " (Invincible Copy System)

The ability to survive is the key to defending yourself from various kinds of challenges and problems in life. In this case, skills for survival play a major role in the learning process and character education.

"Jiang Tian's fists shook together, and two dragon-claw-like purple fist shadows suddenly exploded, setting off two terrifying spiritual power fluctuations, and the terrifying loud noise shook the void!" (Heaven Devouring Dragon Emperor)

The ability to respect others is the key to increasing spiritual values. In this perspective, the skills to transform themselves become dominant in the midst of global factors and currents.

"But the eyes under Ye Wuques cloak became more and more excited, he did not hesitate, stepped out again, exploded at a speed, and killed like lightning!" (Return of The War of God)

The ability to perform personality analysis is an inseparable part of discourse and cultural analysis skills. In the sense of someone even though they have the zeal for life.

3.2. Discussion

The 21st century learning paradigm is a learning paradigm that teaches work discipline and a passion for consistent work. Thornberg, Wänström, Pozzoli & Hong (2019: 586) explain that 21st century learning, the abilities and skills of a worker are factors that provide opportunities to work consistently and independently. Development of measured and structured religious values. To develop human characteristics, the development of these values is closely related to cultural development. Scheiner (220: 336) explains that it provides opportunities to transform and increase the capabilities of character education values. The development of character education values is an inseparable part of humanity and independence.

IV. Conclusion

In the development of character education values, Chinese beat generation children's stories are an inseparable part of developing cultural backgrounds. To develop this, an absolute study of the individual is needed. To develop character education values, which provide cultural enhancement designed to adapt to the development of global currents. For this reason, the development of these values needs to be designed optimally and thoroughly.
